GotoBaby.com Increases Sales Three-Fold With the Help of eBrandz.com

Creating and maintaining a successful business is all about exposure — and in today's business world, ecommerce has given exposure a whole new meaning. No longer does heavy foot traffic or tantalizing window displays guarantee a high level of profits. Magazine and radio advertisements, in fact, are often not enough to attract a high number of customers. It's the Internet that consumers are now relying on in record numbers, and unless a business is prepared to face the challenges that Internet-based advertising provides, success is often fleeting.

"With limited resources I had the task of finding someone whose skills would be able to propel my business to compete with the bigger businesses," says GotoBaby.com's Stuart Sherman of his experience in starting his own Web-based business. "I was desperate to find a way to get listed on the major search engines. My business depended on traffic and I looked everywhere to gain exposure."

After suffering a few hard-learned lessons in search engine optimization (SEO), Sherman finally stumbled across eBrandz.com, an internationally-based SEO company with offices in eight major cities across the world that has successfully executed over 1,200 campaigns since its start in 2003. Among the company's diverse clientele are Citibank, Cardservice International and Manpower, Inc. With their technical team based in India, it gives eBrandz.com a big advantage over American companies. It allows them to offer top-notch work at price far below the competition. According to Sherman, eBrandz.com was the only company he encountered that was able to successfully get his Web site noticed on major search engines.

"My sales grew a very significant 75% after working with eBrandz.com for one year," says Sherman.

Much of this increase came as a result of GotoBaby.com springing into the top 10 under the keyword "baby gifts" on nearly every major search engine, including Google and Yahoo!, as a result of eBrandz.com's efforts.

"Without eBrandz.com I am not sure if GotoBaby.com would have turned into the amazing business it has become," says Sherman.
